

Lakeside Garden Venue

Redbrow Garden Guesthouse
EST. 2004

About Us

Transforming from a windswept, barren 25-acre sheep paddock in 1998, to a vibrant and fruitful 10-hectare garden oasis with a serene bed-and-breakfast establishment by 2004.

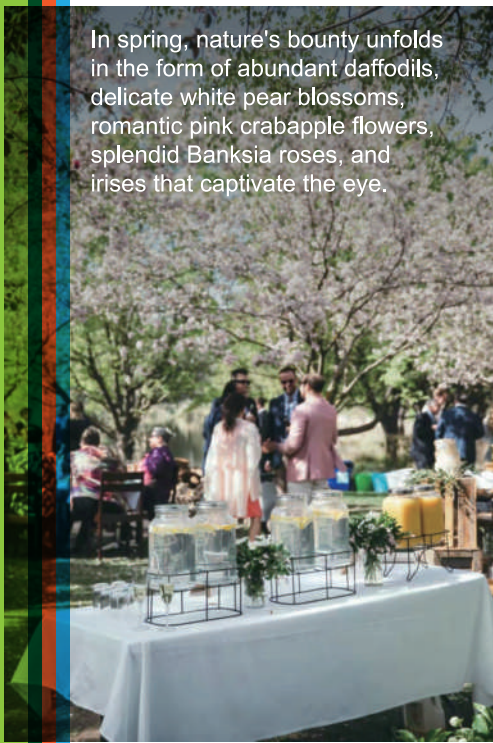

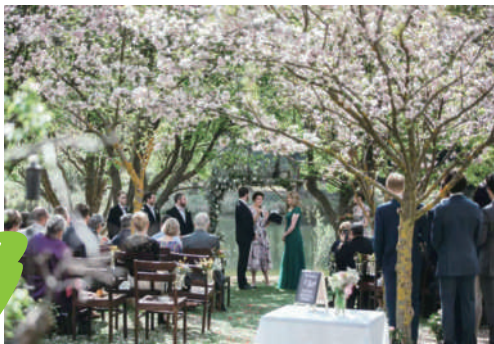

The Redbrow Garden Guesthouse is elegantly nestled around an expansive open water stretch of Coots Creek, a tributary of Murrumbateman Creek, which gracefully runs parallel to Nanima Road.

The lakeside garden has become a popular venue for numerous functions and wedding ceremonies, offering a breathtaking backdrop for these special occasions.

Spring

In spring, nature's bounty unfolds in the form of abundant daffodils, delicate white pear blossoms, romantic pink crabapple flowers, splendid Banksia roses, and irises that captivate the eye.

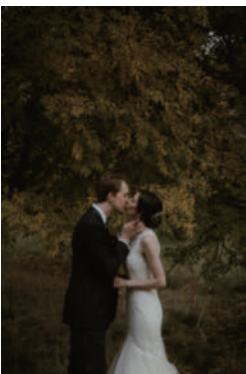

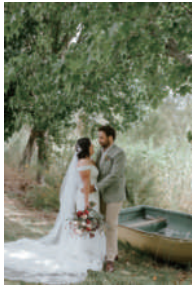

Summer brings forth a lush, green oasis, with the serene lake providing a refreshing respite.

Summer

Autumn graces the scene with a breathtaking array of colors from Manchurian Pears, Liquid Ambers, Canadian Maples, and more.
